NOW, THEREFORE, without the trial of any issue of fact or law, without the admission by Defendant of any of the facts or violations alleged in the Complaint, upon consent of the Parties, and upon consideration of the mutual promises contained herein,

IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED BETWEEN THE PARTIES AND ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED BY THE COURT AS FOLLOWS:

I. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. Jurisdiction. Jurisdiction over this action is conferred by 28 U.S.C. § 1331 (federal question), and 33 U.S.C. § 1365(a) (CWA jurisdiction). An actual, justiciable controversy exists between the Parties. The requested relief is proper under 28 U.S.C. §§ 2201, 2202, and 33 U.S.C. § 1365(a).
2. Venue. Venue is properly vested in this Court pursuant to 33 U.S.C. § 1365(c)(1), because Rye Brook is located, and the events giving rise to this action occurred, within this judicial district.
3. Consent. For purposes of this Order, or any action to enforce the Order, Rye Brook consents to the Court's jurisdiction over this Order. For purposes of this Order, Rye Brook consents to venue in this judicial district.

II. APPLICABILITY

4. The provisions of this Order shall apply to and hereto be binding upon and inure to the benefit of Plaintiffs, Defendant Rye Brook, and their successors and assigns.
5. No transfer of any ownership interest in or any interest in the operation of Rye Brook's Sanitary Sewer System, whether in compliance with this Paragraph or otherwise, shall relieve Rye Brook and their successors and assigns of their obligation to ensure that the terms of this Order are implemented. In the event of any transfer of ownership or operation of the Sanitary Sewer System, or any portion thereof, to any other person or entity, Rye Brook shall be required to provide the proposed Transferee with a copy of this Order at least thirty (30) days prior to such transfer. In addition, Rye Brook shall simultaneously provide Plaintiffs written notice of the prospective transfer, together with verification that Rye Brook has provided the proposed Transferee with said notice and copy of Order, in accordance with Section XVII (Notice). Any noncompliance with this Paragraph constitutes a violation of this Order.

6. Rye Brook shall provide a copy of this Order to all officers, directors, employees, and agents whose duties might reasonably include compliance with any provisions of the Order.
7. The Parties agree to meet and renegotiate the obligations of this Order if agreement is later reached between Rye Brook and Westchester County on reallocation of sewer investment and/or maintenance responsibilities between the County and Rye Brook.

19. Plaintiffs’ sole remedy for a determination that compliance has not been achieved shall be limited to the Village’s performance of additional measures to achieve compliance. The Village’s non-compliance may constitute grounds for injunctive relief, but shall not subject the Village to monetary penalties.

XI. REVIEW AND APPROVAL OF DELIVERABLES

26. A “Deliverable” is any plan, report, map, or other item that Rye Brook is required to submit to Plaintiffs for either review or approval pursuant to this Order.
27. Rye Brook shall submit any significant modification or amendment of any Deliverable for review or approval pursuant to this Order to Plaintiffs.
28. Plaintiffs shall respond to any Deliverable or amended Deliverable with written comments within forty-five (45) days.
29. Within forty-five (45) days of receiving Plaintiffs’ written comments, Rye Brook shall either: (a) alter the submission to address Plaintiffs’ written comments or (b) submit the matter for Dispute Resolution under Section XV of this Order.
30. If a Deliverable is approved pursuant to this Section, Rye Brook shall take all actions required by the Deliverable, in accordance with the schedules and requirements of the Deliverable as approved.
31. For each day Rye Brook fails to timely submit any Deliverable, a stipulated Environmental Benefit Payment (“EBP”) for each such Deliverable may, at the sole discretion of Plaintiffs, be assessed to Rye Brook. Such EBPs shall be held in escrow by Plaintiffs’ attorneys, for the benefit of an environmental benefit project to be determined by mutual agreement of the parties. More than 60 Days	$300

Rye Brook shall have a 15-day period to cure any untimely Deliverable. No EBP is required if the Deliverable is submitted within fifteen (15) days of the deadline. However, if a cure is not effected within fifteen (15) days, an EBP may, at the sole discretion of Plaintiffs, be assessed at up to $500.

XII. FORCE MAJEURE

32. “Force Majeure,” for purposes of the Order, is defined as any event arising from causes beyond the control of Rye Brook, of any entity controlled by Rye Brook or of Rye Brook’s engineers, consultants, and contractors, that delays or prevents the timely performance of any obligation under the Order notwithstanding Rye Brook’s best efforts to fulfill the obligation. “Force Majeure” does not include Rye Brook’s financial inability to perform any obligation under this Order.
33. The requirement that Rye Brook exercise “best efforts” includes using best efforts to address the effects of any such event (a) in preparation for a potential Force Majeure, to the extent one is predicted; (b) as it is occurring and (c) after it has occurred to prevent or minimize any resulting delay to the greatest extent feasible.
34. If any event occurs that may delay or prevent the performance of any obligation under this Order, whether or not caused by a Force Majeure event, Rye Brook shall notify Plaintiffs via email within ten (10) working days after Rye Brook first knew or should have known that the event might cause a delay. Within ten (10) additional working days thereafter, Rye Brook shall submit for review and approval by Plaintiffs, at the addresses and in the manner specified in Section XVIII (Notice), an explanation of the cause(s) of any actual or expected delay or noncompliance, the anticipated duration of any delay, the measure(s) taken and to be taken by Rye Brook to prevent or minimize the delay, a proposed schedule for the implementation of such measures, and a statement as to whether, in the opinion of Rye Brook, such event may cause or contribute to an endangerment to public health, welfare, or the environment. Failure to provide timely and complete notice in accordance with this Paragraph shall constitute a waiver of any claim of Force Majeure with respect to the event in question.
35. If Plaintiffs agree that a delay or anticipated delay is attributable to Force Majeure, the time for performance of the obligations under this Order that are affected by the Force Majeure event shall be extended for a period of time as is necessary to complete these obligations. If the Parties cannot agree on the period of time necessary to complete these obligations, the Parties may initiate the dispute resolution process set forth in Section XV.
36. If Plaintiffs do not agree the delay or anticipated delay is attributable to Force Majeure, or on the number of days of noncompliance caused by such event, Plaintiffs will notify Rye Brook in writing of its decision. Rye Brook may then elect to initiate the dispute resolution process set forth in Section XV. If Rye Brook does not initiate the dispute resolution process within ten (10) days of receiving Plaintiffs’ written notice under this Paragraph, then Rye Brook shall be deemed to have waived any Force Majeure claims or any rights to initiate dispute resolution with regard to such claims.
37. Delay in performance of any obligation under this Order shall not automatically justify or excuse delay in complying with any subsequent obligation or requirement of this Order.

XIII. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

38. The Dispute Resolution procedure of this Paragraph shall be the exclusive mechanism to resolve any disputes arising under this Order:

- a. Any dispute that arises under this Order shall initially be subject to a period of informal negotiations, which shall not extend beyond thirty (30) days unless the Parties otherwise mutually agree in writing to an extension of the informal negotiation period and/or a mediation process. The dispute shall be considered to have arisen on the date one Party receives written notification from the other, specifically referencing this Paragraph, that there is a dispute. Such notice shall state the matter in dispute.
- b. If the Parties cannot resolve a dispute by informal negotiations, whether before or immediately after the lapse of the thirty (30) day informal negotiations, then the Parties must seek the intervening role of a certified mediator, with such individual chosen by mutual agreement of the Parties. The mediation period shall not extend beyond forty-five (45) days from the end of the informal negotiation period, unless the Parties otherwise mutually agree in writing to an extension of the mediation period.
- c. If the Parties cannot resolve a dispute by mediation, at the conclusion of the forty-five (45) day mediation period, either Party may file a Dispute Resolution motion with the court.
- d. Alternatively, if the Parties mutually agree, in writing, to bypass mediation entirely, the disputing party shall file a motion with the court directly. The motion shall refer to this Order and Paragraph and shall set forth the nature of the dispute and a proposal for its resolution. The opposing Party shall have thirty (30) days in which to file a response.
- e. Nothing in this section should be interpreted to limit the Court's inherent authority to enforce its orders, including through the use of sanctions.

XIV. INFORMATION COLLECTION AND RETENTION

39. Plaintiffs and their contractors, consultants, and attorneys shall have authority to enter any property or facility owned or controlled by Rye Brook, at all reasonable times, upon proper identification, for the purposes of: (a) monitoring the progress of activity required by this Order; (b) verifying any data or information submitted to Plaintiffs under this Order; (c) assessing Rye Brook's compliance with this Order; (d) obtaining samples and, upon request, splits of any samples taken by Rye Brook or its representatives, contractors, or consultants; and (e) obtaining documentary evidence, including photographs and similar data related to compliance with this Order. Except in an emergency, Plaintiffs shall provide a minimum of three (3) days' prior notice of intent to enter. Upon request, Plaintiffs shall provide Rye Brook splits of any samples taken.

40. Rye Brook shall retain all non-identical copies of all documents, records, and other information (including documents, records, or other information in electronic form) generated by Rye Brook, and all data collected and all reports generated by Rye Brook's contractors (including data and reports in electronic form), that relate in any manner to Rye Brook's performance of its obligations under this Order from the Termination Date for a period of five years. This information retention requirement shall apply regardless of any contrary corporate or institutional policies or procedures. At any time during this information-retention period, upon reasonable request by the Plaintiffs, Rye Brook shall provide copies of any documents, records, or other information required to be maintained under this Paragraph.
41. At least ninety (90) days prior to the expiration of the record retention period, Plaintiffs may make a reasonable request, in writing, that Rye Brook extend the record retention period. Upon such reasonable request, Rye Brook agrees to retain the particular records in question for an additional one-year period.
42. Rye Brook may assert that certain documents, records, or other forms of information are privileged under the attorney-client privilege or any other privilege or protection from disclosure recognized by federal law or state law. If Rye Brook asserts such a privilege or protection, it shall provide the following: (1) the title of the document, record, or information; (2) the date of the document, record, or information; (3) the name and title of each author of the document, record, or information; (4) the name and title of each addressee and recipient; (5) a description of the subject of the document, record, or information; and (6) the privilege or protection asserted by Rye Brook.

XV. EFFECT OF SETTLEMENT/RESERVATION OF RIGHTS

43. This Order resolves the civil claims of Plaintiffs for the violations alleged in their Complaint, as against Rye Brook, filed in this action through the Date of Lodging.
44. Rye Brook is responsible for achieving and maintaining complete compliance with all applicable federal, state, and local laws and regulations, and permits, and Rye Brook's compliance with this Order shall be no defense to any action commenced pursuant to any such laws, regulations, or permits, except as set forth herein. The Plaintiffs do not, by their consent to the entry of this Order, warrant or aver in any manner that Rye Brook's compliance with any aspect of this Order will result in compliance with provisions of the CWA or with any other provisions of federal, State, or local laws, regulations, or permits.
45. This Order does not limit any rights or remedies available to the Plaintiffs or defenses available to Rye Brook for any violation by Rye Brook of the CWA, State law, or associated regulations or permit conditions other than those claims alleged in the Complaints through the Date of Lodging.

46. This Order does not limit any rights or remedies available to the United States or the State.
47. The Plaintiffs expressly reserve all rights and remedies, legal and equitable, available to enforce the provisions of this Order, including the provisions of any Appendix or Deliverable approved by Plaintiffs under this Order.
48. This Order does not limit or affect the rights of Rye Brook or the Plaintiffs against any third parties not party to this Order, nor does it limit the rights of third parties not party to this Order against Rye Brook, except as otherwise provided by law.
49. This Order shall not be construed to create rights in, or grant any cause of action to, any third party not party to this Order.
